

Caring for your practice's financial and regulatory needs as you care for your patient's needs.

Why CRI?

From individual physicians and dentists to group practices, academically affiliated practices, Medicare Accountable Care Organizations, and other risk-bearing entities, CRI's Healthcare practice offers a wide range of services to help providers accomplish their goals. Our expertise gleans from decades of serving providers and practices—through the transition from fee-for-service to value-based payments to the industry's recent evolution in response to the global health crisis.
